THE CALIFORNIA LATINO LEGISLATIVE CAUCUS ROLLS OUT LEGISLATIVE PRIORITIES FOR 2007

The legislative priorities of the Latino Caucus cover 8 categories

Sacramento – The Chair and Vice Chair of the Latino Legislative Caucus, Assemblymember Joe Coto (AD23) and Senator Gil Cedillo (SD22), along with other members of the Caucus will unveil their legislative priorities for 2007. The Latino Caucus is committed to advancing legislation that addresses the needs of all Californians. The areas of priority include Health, Education and Civil Rights. This is an agenda at the forefront of a competitive workforce and geared to having access to the American dream.

The Latino Caucus will also seek a Prison reform, Environmental Justice, Civic Engagement and Economic Development for Californians. With 26 members, The Latino Caucus strongly believes that its agenda is, in reality, the American agenda.

The California Legislative Latino Caucus will hold future Press Conferences around the State to promote their legislative priorities.
